HANDLING OF RISK AND MEMBERS' PERSONAL INFORMATION

Risk

Members, Member's Spouses and Guests who partake in any of the Club's activities do so at their own risk, and they are urged to review their own personal insurance cover, particularly as regards public liability and sporting activities

Whilst at Probus, you are strongly advised to carry with you a card, at all times, containing your own, up to date, personal vital information "in Case of Emergency" (ICE) –, for example your date of birth, any medical conditions, contact details of family (see iceinfo.co.uk)

Personal Information

Personal information which you provide on your membership application form and subsequently during your membership of the Club will be used by the Club for purposes only in connection with the running of the Club, which includes communicating by post, telephone and email, making bookings for events, trips and holidays and financial transactions. It will never be disclosed for marketing purposes.

The information is stored by the appropriate Club Officers on paper and in electronic form. It may be provided to Committee members, other members and external organisations when it is needed to facilitate the running of the Club and in providing the benefits of membership to you. Club officers will at all times take appropriate steps to maintain the security of the information which they hold, and take due account of its confidentiality when dealing with external organisations.

A Members Handbook, in which personal information and photographs are included, is prepared annually. Those to whom it is issued should bear in mind that it contains personal information about all members and should therefore treat its contents with discretion. You have a right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office if you believe there is a problem with the Club's handling of your personal information.

Please print and sign your name below to indicate that you have read and accept all these terms.
